“Breaking & Entering” Well Worth the Ticket Price

by Linda Wachal, publisher For those of you who missed Friday and Saturday’s performance of Breaking and Entering, presented by the Evansdale Economic Development Corp., may I just say - don’t miss the next dinner theater! This presentation, like the previous dinner theaters, was fun for everyone. Laughter abounded and the four characters in the show did an outstanding job. Kudos to Brian Langr, Cassie Yost, Chris Hansen and Anne Johnson.

A big thank you also goes out to all those who gave their time to prepare and serve meals and delicious desserts—the chocolate pudding was to die for!

Also a big thanks goes to the many others that, without their help, the dinner theater would not have been possible.

We had several people at our table who are not from this area, but came to Evansdale just to attend. They commented how great this is to have in our community, and are looking forward to attending again.

The dinner theater helps to raise money for the Community Life Center of Evansdale and the $25 per person dinner ticket is well worth it, not only in entertainment and dining, but also in the money that is raised for this worthwhile project. I would love to see this done more often than once a year.

Boys & Girls Club Celebrates Last Full Day Before School

Evansdale News On Thursday, August 13, 57 members of the Boys & Girls Club of Evansdale were treated to a lunch of hot dogs and chips courtesy of Jims Barbecue and Gene Walker to celebrate the last full day at the club before school begins.

Evansdale Mayor Doug Faas

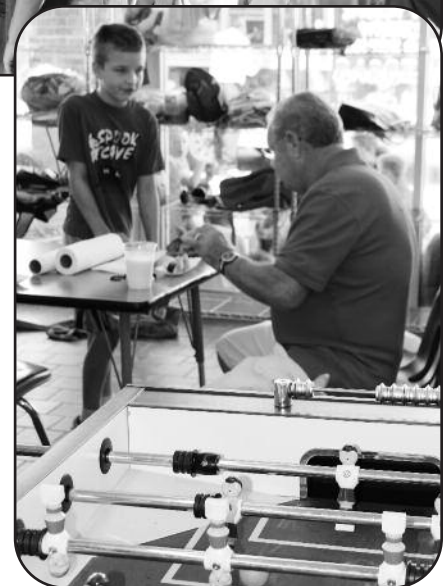

was present to help celebrate, and Police Chief Jeff Jensen even helped serve the lunch! The children had a lot of questions for the Chief of Police and Officer Jensen did his best to answer all of them.

The Evansdale Boys & Girls Club is currently at full capacity with 65 school age children.

The Boys & Girls Club offers school age children a place to go after school and during the summer where they can get help with homework, play sports and games, read, and participate in activities that they may not otherwise get to experience.

If you are interested in volunteering at the Evansdale or Waterloo location, check out the website at cedarvalleyclubs.com
