Congratulations to the Library Champions!

Submitted This year the library had our first ever Library Champion program which set goals for those who participated to keep them reading through summer's end until the beginning of school.

We had 24 registered participants and 18 who completed the task. Each individual, or family, that completed their goals, were awarded a sign for their yard, one random winner was selected from the completed book logs to win a $20 Amazon gift card (Congratulations to Alexis!), one winner receives a 9" pizza from the OP III (Congratulations, Lydia!) and each other participant receives a free book and another prize token from various vendors.

The Evansdale Public Library would like to take a moment to recognize them for making reading a priority! Way to go!
